After years of hard work and dedication Dave McCallum, has recently announced retirement from his position on the GPC as Executive Vice President. Dave's tireless efforts over the years have helped growers from all over the world gain skill and knowledge from his work within the GPC. Dave was instrumental in developing the many weigh-off sites now overseas in Europe and across the world. His pleasant demeanor and speaking skills embraced us for years as host of the convention every March. Dave now leaves the GPC on a sound financial and organizational footing ready and prepared for the road ahead.

As Dave moves onto to the patch of his dreams, please join us in Congratulating Dave on his marvelous service to the commonwealth and growers everywhere.
